Emerald Ashes Ent debuts with supernatural/psycho-thriller series 'Two of Hearts'

[Press Release]

[New York, New York, January 31—] Do hearts have memories? Emerald Ashes Ent explores this theory in its debut series “TWO OF HEARTS”, which centers on Teagan Guise (Asha Etchison) after a tumultuous year following a heart transplant.

Supporting her through this recovery is her lively mother (Brenda Crawley- 2017 Audelco ‘Viv’ Award Winner) and concerned best friend, Det. Owen Cooke (Leonidas Ocampo). However, what first appeared as a case of ‘survivor’s remorse’ soon takes an unexpected turn when Teagan begins experiencing unexplainable ‘complications’. Propelled by these encounters into a journey for answers, Teagan comes face to face with the confounding question, ‘Should you follow your heart, even if it’s not yours?’

Season 1 of ‘TWO OF HEARTS’ is currently divided into two parts, episodes 1-5 (out now on Vimeo & YouTube) and 6-11 which will be releasing this spring. During the in between time, Emerald Ashes Entertainment hopes to raise money for Season 2 & festival submissions through the sale of #TOHseries merchandise (shop link).

As the first half of the season draws to a close in a melodic conclusion that reveals the seriousness of Teagan's 'condition', the audience gains a chance to finally witness the aforementioned 'affects' of her sleep aid medication, when a psychotic break ushers in the appearance of a new character, (Julia Tolchin), raising more questions which the series will move to slowly unravel.

"Despite the fantastical shaping of this series, I am completely aware that heart health is a very real and serious issue," says Asha Etchison, actress/creator of 'Two of Hearts' & Emerald Ashes Ent. "As such, there are items listed in the 'TOH Series' shop that send 10% of proceeds directly to the 'American Heart Association'. I also plan to do the same with donations raised from crowd funding."

Beginning as just an idea 5 years prior, "TWO OF HEARTS" series and Emerald Ashes Ent were not truly realized until spring of 2018. Floored by a sudden drive, Asha Etchison found herself moving from the front of the camera to behind the scenes as a producer, writer, and director.

"'Two of Hearts' has been bouncing around in my head for a while and it wasn't until last year that the Universe compelled me to bring it to life," says Etchison. "I love magic and the supernatural genre as a whole but rarely do I see audition opportunities for people of color to be key parts of that realm. So I got tired of waiting! Instead, with an amazing crew of four (Brielle Stewart- Prod. Assistant/Wardrobe Stylist, Jenaya Abernathy- Boom Operator, Iyanna Williams- Set Photographer & Rayvon Southerland- DP), I was able to create a world of mystery and magic that had a diverse cast of talented actors. This is my way of showing the world that people of color can be beautifully complicated and magical too."

Asha Etchison is the creator of 'Two of Hearts' & Emerald Ashes Entertainment. She is also an actress, model, photographer and owner/designer of Nightly Allure (handmade lingerie and accessory business). As of 2019, Asha adds screen writing and directing to her resume.
